

A SCAVENGER HUNT

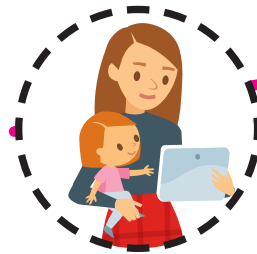

JOIN US, DATE US, TAKE US HOME

As part of TupAwareness Day, we encourage you to take part in a fun and exciting way to meet new people in your community—with a twist! See how many of these challenges you can mark off your list as the day progresses:

Approach and Share the Love with...

Someone taking a selfie

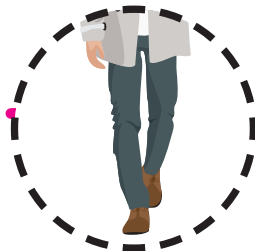

A mom (Don't forget to mention the awesomeness of When Mama Eats Well!)

A person you meet at a local shopping center

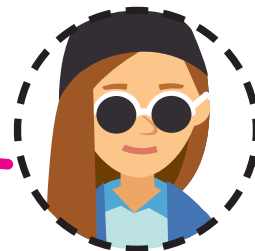

Someone of the opposite gender. (Everyone loves to party!)

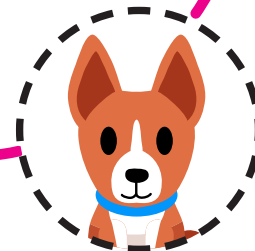

The tallest person in your view

A person carrying a tote/shopping bag (You know they can take some catalogs to go.)

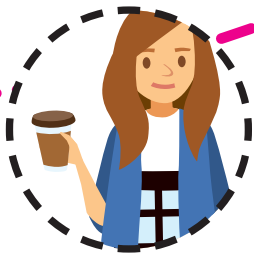

A millennial (ish—no need to check IDs. Give it your best guess.)

Someone with a pet

Someone who looks like they could be your new TFF

Someone in a coffee shop

Congrats—you did it!
