TupperConnect™ Party Setup What's This?

Combine this party with an online party?

Party Start: :

Set time. Then hit "Next". A box will open choose the option for you to invite.

You can select to invite guests yourself or just have your host do it.

*If you do it, you can invite your host so she has a direct party invitation.

Once you have entered and reviewed all party information, please click on this link to inform the host that her party has been shared with her guests and she can start tracking activity.

The setup is complete!

Click here to complete set up & the Host will be sent an email

Once you click this is what it will look like.

Welcome to your TupperConnect™ Party.

Congratulations! The Host, DONALD DUCK, has been notified that the party is ready to go and can access the party anytime at: <http://www.tupperware.com/info/Party#!my/party>

It's that easy!

The Facebook link is the link I use for all invites.

Important Things to Remember

Collect online orders for 45 days

Online orders will be accepted for an open TupperConnect™ party for up to 45 days after the party is set up in the system. This provides some flexibility and allows you to potentially collect online orders for a party even after the party is held, but you can't collect online orders forever.

The last day for online orders will be displayed on the Party Setup page. After this date, online orders can no longer be applied to the party.

Minimum Party Retail

TupperConnect™ parties must generate a minimum of $175 U.S. or $200 CAD in party orders (orders collected at the actual party and entered in My Sales) in order to benefit from Bonus Online Sales. Remember, these new TupperConnect™ Party features are here to enhance the party experience, not replace it.
