CUSTOMER ORDER FORM

ORDERING MADE EASY

The Customer order form is designed to capture a lot of information to help you build your business. It serves as a place to:

Retain Customer Contact information

Discover if a guest is interested in hosting a party, hosting a fundraiser and/or wants to learn more about starting a Tupperware business

Offer the ability for guest to contribute to Tupperware's Charitable endeavor — Chain of Confidence.

Include 5 to 10 in your Party Planning Packet for your Host. She can use them to collect outside orders before her Party.

CUSTOMER ORDER FORM

The order form comes in two parts. Ask your Host if she'd like to receive the Party order and distribute to her friends. If she says yes, leave the carbon copies of Customer Order forms for your Host to use when she's sorting the orders. Take the white copy with you as it will have the credit card numbers for you to use when you enter your Party orders.

AFTER THE PARTY DEMONSTRATION

Ask your guest to complete the customer contact information with their email address so they can receive monthly specials from Tupperware.

Point out the boxes on the order form and ask your guests to check the boxes that interest them.

Change for the Better is the fundraising aspect of the Chain of Confidence. You can help make a difference by reaching out to your hosts and party guests and asking them to create lasting change through purchasing one of the fundraising products or by rounding up their orders to the next highest amount.

WARRANTY OR REPLACEMENT ITEMS

If any of your guests have warranty or replacement items they need you to take care of, ask them to include it on the order form. In this way, you can keep the information together with the guests contact information and her order.

ADDING UP PARTY SALES

The subtotal is the amount you will use to calculate Host Credits. Tax, shipping and handling are not figured into Host Credits.

SHIPPING AND HANDLING

Calculate 10% of the order for shipping and handling or a minimum of $4.50 US per order. Notice tax on shipping applies to certain states. For orders placed in Canada there is a flat shipping rate of $3.95.
