

Sign up for your Tupperware Card through My Sales

Don't wait on snail mail to get paid. Get the Tupperware Card!

Get paid fast! There's no cost for the Tupperware Check or Debit Card and it offers you a quicker, more secure way to receive your commissions and manage your business finances.

Better yet, Tupperware cardholders are paid twice a month instead of just once a month with postage mailed commissions.

Best of all, use this card to make your Tupperware party sales purchases and receive loyalty points to redeem for free sales aids.

Choose the best option for your business.

Tupperware Check Card

With the Tupperware Check Card, you no longer need to transfer funds from your checking account to your credit card to make purchases. By linking directly to your existing checking account, the Tupperware Check Card enables the fastest possible payment of your Tupperware purchases. A record of your transactions appears on your checking account statement.

Tupperware Debit Card

The prepaid Tupperware Debit Card is an excellent option for those who do not have a checking account. It also functions as a prepaid ATM debit card and is tied to a special account set up by a designated bank. Even if you do have a checking account, the Tupperware Debit Card is ideal if you wish to keep your Tupperware business account separate from your personal checking account.

To sign up, log into Mysales>Sales Force>My profile>Payment information. Then click on login to my Tupperware card and go to "Click here to enroll". Don't miss out on this great added benefit!
