Terms & Conditions

Explanation of Approved Suppliers, Hotels and Airlines for Travel Redemption:

Approved Vendor/Supplier:

An approved Vendor/Supplier has been vetted either directly by our Travel Designer or through our associated Travel Consortium. Using these suppliers assures quality and consistency of delivery, and these relationships allow us to manage the booking most efficiently providing a higher quality experience.

Approved Hotel:

An approved hotel is one that is part of our Preferred Partner supplier programs. These programs consist both of major brands (such as Hyatt, Marriott, and Hilton) and boutique properties that have been properly vetted either directly by our Travel Designer or through our associated Travel Consortium (Signature Travel Network). When using larger brand hotel products (Hyatt, Marriott, Hilton, etc.) we will use the mid-range or higher-level hotels from their full portfolio of hotels. As an example, when using Marriott brand, we will use properties that are part of the Stars & Luminous program. These include the Premium and Luxury brands such as the W Hotels, JW Marriott Hotels, Autograph Collection, Marriott Hotels, Westin Hotels, Le Meriden Hotels, Renaissance Hotels, Tribute Portfolio Hotels, Sheraton Hotels, Delta Hotels, and Gaylord Hotels. Doing so allows us to provide a consistency of stay, greater efficiency in management of the stay, as well as additional add-on benefits such as complimentary breakfast daily, personalized welcome amenity, hotel credit to use once per stay, early check-in/ late check-out based on availability, and complimentary room upgrade based on availability, and complimentary basic Wi-Fi.

Approved Airline:

An approved airline is one that can be booked using the GDS (Global Distribution System). Most all major carriers allow for GDS reservations, and using this system allows us more flexibility to manage the booking should changes need to be made any time prior to check-in. Using approved airlines allows us to provide better customer service to our achievers and provides a more seamless experience. Budget airlines, such as Frontier Airlines, Spirit Airlines, WOW, Ryanair would be examples of airlines that are not considered approved since they cannot be booked using the GDS. Should Achiever still wish to book their air through a non-approved airline, achiever will be wholly responsible for booking, managing, and paying for flight outside of the award funds.

Redemption Policy:

Reward must be redeemed and confirmed within 12 months of achievement date. Achiever has 12 months from Phase I achievement date to redeem for any merchandise or shopping selections and/or to complete their booking for any travel.

If Achiever is successful in achieving Phase II, they may either redeem for this reward or they may combine it with their Phase I reward for a max Award Value of $12,000 USD. Phase II rewards and combined Phase I & II rewards must be booked or redeemed within 12 months of Achiever's Phase II achievement date. All travel must be completed within 6 months of redemption/Book By date and must be booked at least 45 days prior to the departure date.

Please note that award values are considered additional income and will be taxed accordingly. As a condition of participating in a destination trip, the Achiever and her/his guest(s) must sign a Waiver and Release of Liability Agreement, which will be provided upon selection of the desired destination trip.

Please Note:

Total value of the reward(s) chosen from this catalog may vary based on achievement. Please see Tupperware Grow for More Program Terms & Conditions for details. Dates of travel and destinations are subject to availability of airfare and hotel; booking reservations at least 90 days in advance for peak holiday travel dates is highly recommended. The availability of items from this catalog are subject to change based on availability and Achiever's location.
